HHC 3/7 Inf. edge out HHB 1/41 FA, 43-41

Headquarters and Headquarters Company, 3rd Battalion, 7th Infantry Regiment overcame Headquarters and Headquarters Battery, 1st Battalion, 41st Field Artillery Regiment 43-41 after a closely fought contest March 2 at Newman Physical Fitness Center.

The game's top scorers were 1/41's Christopher Dickerson with nine points and 3/7's Kevin Arnett with eight.

It was a fast-paced game, and 3/7 quickly took a 3-point lead.

The 1/41 players battled back and kept the spread in the single digits, but could not overpower their competition.

"These are evenly matched teams — one play will make the whole game," said 1/41's William Beale in a moment of rest during the action. "Hopefully we'll make that play. It boils down to who wants the game the most."

Even though 3/7 maintained their lead, 1/41 tied it up sporadically throughout the first and second quarters, and the scoring was spread throughout both teams.

The fight was fierce, and 3/7 led 21-18 at halftime, but 1/41 was determined, and finally overtook their opponents late in the fourth quarter.

Their 39-36 lead was short-lived, though, because 3/7's Donnell Raby quickly answered back with a three-point shot, tying the score.

1/41 pulled ahead again briefly when a quick layup by Dickerson brought the tally to 41-39 with less than a minute left on the clock.

Seconds later, their challengers took the chance for a comeback when 1/41's Winslow Preston fouled 3/7's Terence Whitehead.

After Whitehead tied up the game once again with two successful free throws, 1/41 said goodbye to their lead for good.

Any chances for an overtime win went out the window when a layup by Arnett clinched the game for 3/7 with 12 seconds of play left on the clock.

1/41 made a valiant effort to score, not slowing down until the final buzzer, when 3/7's 43-41 victory was made official.

The celebrating 3/7 team was quick to comment on their win.

"The rest of the leagues better watch out, because when we catch fire it can be dangerous," said assistant coach Levy Robinson.

"We're going to win the whole thing," added Larry Winston, 3/7's second-highest first half scorer.

Raby summed up his thoughts on his team's win.

"We play till the end, and we never quit."

In one of the final games of Fort Stewart's intramural basketball season, D Battery, 1st Battalion, 3rd Air Defense Artillery Regiment's Delta Devils defeated B Troop, 3rd Squadron, 7th Cavalry Regiment Bulldogs March 4 at Newman Physical Fitness Center, 52-49.

Bulldog Jerrod Fields opened the game with a strong layup and a two-point basket.

He then scored five of the next seven points, before Devil Jerome Bolton put his team on the board with a three-point swish.

In the second period, the ADA Devils closed the scoring gap with a strong outside game, while the Bulldogs steadily worked an aggressive close game.

After another two point layup by Fields and a free throw by 3/7's Larry Lewis, Bulldogs led the game 29-28 at the end of the second period.

"We're a little shorthanded tonight because of training," said Delta Devil coach Ken Jones.

"But the whole team has improved tremendously this season, and we're on a winning streak that can't be stopped," he added.

The teams matched each other point for point throughout the third period, and the Devils continued to dominate the three point shooting.

"We've got a good rhythm going with these long shots," Bolton said between heavy breaths. "Just got to keep up the energy — We want this one."

By the middle of the fourth period, the Devils pulled ahead by five points and seemed to have the game in the bag.

But the Bulldogs came back with nice assists by Desi Johnson, and kept it close until the buzzer signaled their narrow loss.

"We're missing a few players due to training, but this is a great team with some players that really stepped up this year," said Bulldog coach Ronald Harris. "We'll be back, ready for action next season."

And the winner is ...

The Fort Stewart Mite Girls won the Georgia Parks and Recreation Basketball State Championship Saturday in Social Circle, Ga. Front Row: T'era Alston, Brittney Guilfo, Tiffany Johnson, Jasmine Preston and Brittany Gomillion

Three Army divers set to compete

Goarmysports.com

Special to the Frontline

WEST POINT, N.Y. — Three members of the Army diving teams will be competing at the NCAA Zone A Diving Qualifying Meet this weekend in Annapolis, Md. Doug Klein will dive on the men's side while Chelsea Haviland and Sarah Get will be representing the women's team. The meet is scheduled for Friday and Saturday.

The NCAA Zone Diving Qualifying meet is where divers attempt to qualify for the NCAA Championships. Five men's and four women's spots will be filled from the approximately 60 competitors in Annapolis. There are five zones throughout the country. The women's championships will be held in College Station, Texas, March 18 through 20. The men's championships are scheduled for the following week, March 25 through 27, in East Meadow, N.Y.

Haviland has led Army women's team in the diving events all season. The sophomore has claimed victory 20 times in 22 events, sweeping both boards on 10 occasions. Haviland was named Patriot League "Diver of the Week" seven times this season.

Two weeks ago, the Thief River Falls, Minn., native successfully defended her Patriot League "Diver of the Year" title at the league championships.

Get has teamed with Haviland to form a formidable one-two punch all year long. The Melbourne, Fla., native has finished second 15 times in 21 events. She set season-best scores off both boards in the team's meet versus Pennsylvania. She garnered 262.42 points off the one-meter board and 276.81 points off the three-meter board opposite the Quakers.

All three divers are veterans to this event as each competed in the qualifying meet last season. Klein recorded three top-seven showings last year, placing seventh off the one-meter board, sixth off the three-meter board and third off the platform. Haviland finished 11th off the one-meter board and 12th off the three-meter board. Get, meanwhile, competed in the preliminaries of each event, notching 205.10 points in the one-meter event and 190.00 in the three-meter discipline.

Friday's diving events are slated to begin at 1 p.m., while Saturday's events are scheduled to start at 11 a.m.
